Drew English entered the film industry in 2005 after obtaining a diploma in film and TV production.

Working as a camera assistant for fifteen years Drew was able to learn from some of the best cinematographers in the world on such films as Wolverine, Australia & The sapphires. Since starting to work as a professional cinematographer five years ago Drew was awarded with the upcoming cinematographer scholarship in 2016, a gold ACS award in 2016 followed by the much coveted gold tripod in 2017 with his first ever entry. Continuing down the same road he won a silver ACS in 2019 & another gold in 2020.

Drew's dedication to his craft is well known within the film industry. He approaches all projects with a level of commitment that accentuates his creativity and his capacity to connect with a story. Skilled in all camera formats, Drew is a perfectionist at heart, with a genuine passion for his craft.

With an ability to contribute conceptually as well as visual, Drew is deeply dedicated to artistic excellence.
