BIO

Tommy Thoms is an experienced and collaborative cinematographer with a curious lens. A Masters graduate from the cinematography program at the Australian Film Radio & Television school, he has a diverse portfolio that includes music videos, commercials, and documentaries, that show a deep appreciation for craft and originality. With a strong commercial background, Tommy brings a distinctive perspective to his cinematography work, integrating technical proficiency with a nuanced understanding of storytelling.

As he expands his horizons as a cinematographer, he seeks out collaborations that spark a connection. Whether tasked with crafting a cinematic commercial or building an immersive narrative world, he always brings a blend of enthusiasm, professionalism, and a cheeky sense of humor. With a creative energy, he thrives on turning ideas into visually compelling experiences, regardless of the project's scale or ambition.
